

Research Grants
at the Max Kade Center for German-American Studies
The University of Kansas

The Max Kade Committee of the Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures will accept applications by graduate students and established scholars for research at the Max Kade Center. Awarded grant money may be used for travel to Lawrence, Kansas, and living expenses while pursuing research at the Max Kade Center of the University of Kansas. In general, grant amounts are awarded up to $1,000 and must be used within one year of notification of the award. At certain times, especially during summer months, the Max Kade apartment may be available for lodging.

Short-term (four-week maximum) grants are available for research at the Max Kade Center about the following areas: exile studies, dialect studies, German immigration history, especially on the American Turner Societies (Turnvereine), and research related to the life and work of Albert Bloch.
